LB 839 eliminates the reimbursement of tuition by the state General Fund for children of parents employed by the federal government who reside on national parks or national monuments within the state. The bill also eliminates the cash fund-reimbursement of tuition by the Department of Aeronautics for children of parents who reside on tax-exempt state owned airfields and the reimbursement of tuition by cities for children of parents residing on city-owned tax-exempt airfields.

The estimated General and Cash Fund savings from the bill in 1993-94 and 1994-95 is as follows:

	1993-94	1994-95
State Department of Education - General Fund	($17,160)	($17,160)
Department of Aeronautics - Cash Fund	( 17,000)	( 17,680)
	($34,160)	($34,840)

The General Fund appropriation for the State Department of Education has been reduced by $17,160 in 1993-94 and 1994-95 in the Appropriations Committee recommendation.
